

RNM IN THE NEWS

RNM goes global

NEW DELHI: RNM & Company a third generation company of chartered accountants has carried out a tie up with internationally renowned Geneva Group International of Switzerland to expand its activities worldwide. Established in 1948 by RN Marwah and carried forward by UN Marwah and subsequently Raghu Marwah, the tie is a major step up in providing professional services worldwide.

RNM & Company partner Raghu Marwah addresses the gathering

One of the premier Chartered Accountant companies of the country RNM & Company has tied up with Geneva Group International, of Switzerland in its effort to spread its wings internationally. Geneva Group International is an international network of chartered accountants, lawyers and management consultants with over 120 members, 260 offices and over 8500 employees worldwide.

The fusion of international independent consultants has brought specialists—spanning all major countries and fields together and will enable RNM & Company to give informed reply to all worldwide fiscal, legal and economic questions.

Amongst the dignitaries that gathered to celebrate the tie up

RN Marwah & Co. ties up with Geneva Group International were the Swiss ambassador, parliamentarians and Michael Reiss Von Filski and Peter Kaeser from the Geneva Group.

Speaking on the occasion Raghu Marwah, the Partner of RNM & Company said that getting ahead in business in current day scenario means forging international relations and only an international network of experts can make it possible for an individual businessman to achieve the best possible choice of business relationships. "That is where we, as a part of GGI can provide professional services to our clients worldwide for cross border transactions of any nature" he said.

Raghu Marwah with his alliance partner

Source: Delhi Mid Day (March 29, 2005)

R.N. MARWAH & CO.
Chartered Accountants
www.rnmandco.com